

Short Bio of Dr. Grace Lopez

Dr. Grace M. Lopez, graduated Doctor of Medicine in the Philippines at FEU Nicanor Reyes Medical Foundation and finished her 3years residency training in Clinical Dermatology. She got her Masteral degree in Business Administration (Business and wellness Management track) at Miriam College formerly Maryknoll College in 2019.

She pursued her further studies internationally on Clinical and Aesthetic Dermatology and conducted several lectures in various medical schools and conferences. A former clinical Professor at FEU Nicanor Reyes Medical Foundation.

She's an active dermatology consultant where she hold's various community clinics as well as hospitals in the Philippines.

She's a member of International Society of Dermatology, The Obesity Society in the United States, World Society of Interdisciplinary Anti-Aging Medicine, International Hormone Society, Asian Society of Pigment Cell Research, an active fellow of Philippine Leprosy Society and international alumni member at National Skin Center, Singapore. She's also included as one of the Asia-Pacific advisory panel board member of PRIME Journal, an International Journal of Aesthetic and Anti-Ageing Medicine, Asia edition. Presently, she's an associate member of Skin of Color Society (SOCS) in the US, member of Aesthetic Multispecialty Society and one of the board member of Dermatologic Aesthetic Surgery International League (DASIL) in USA She's also a recipient awardee for the Most Outstanding Physician of the year 2020 given by the Philippine Medical Association because of her achievements and contributions for the upliftment of the medical community.

Dr.Grace Lopez is currently the Chief Executive Officer and the President of the Medical Skin Health Training Foundation, Inc. in the Philippines and the Founding Chairman of Philippine Association of Primary skin Health Physicians Inc.